FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DMR Seeks Participation in 2011 Marine Calendar Art Contest

BILOXI, Miss. - In an effort to generate an interest in our coastal resources and to promote the awareness of their value, the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (DMR) is holding its 10th annual student art contest for third- through sixth-graders in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties. The contest kicked off Sept. 16 and the Oct. 18 entry deadline is quickly approaching. The DMR would like to encourage all third- through sixth-grade students to participate. The winning entries will be featured in the DMR's 2011 Marine Information Calendar and the original artwork will be on public display.

Please note that ALL third- through sixth-grade students are eligible to participate, including students who are home schooled.

The theme of the contest is "Preserving and Enjoying Mississippi's Coastal Resources." Students may choose from among the following topics to be included in the calendar:

- January: Estuaries/Wetland Habitats (pitcher plant bogs, pine savannas, Great Blue Herons, Snowy Egrets, etc.)
- February: Marinas, boats docked in harbor (sailboats, sportfishing boats, etc.)
- March: Saltwater fishing/deep sea fishing, SHARKS!
- April: Boat and Water Safety (people boating or on Jet Skis wearing lifejackets)
- May: People fishing / floundering near Deer Island or enjoying the island recreationally
- June: Shrimp boats, Blessing of the Fleet, shrimp in general
- July: Reeling in a record-breaking saltwater fish (Red Snapper, Cobia, shark, etc.), offshore artificial reefs
- August: Blue Crabs, crabbing with drop nets
- September: Kids fishing off piers, wade fishing, or cast netting
- October: Mississippi Coastal Cleanup (people cleaning beaches or wildlife entangled in debris such as birds in fishing line, sea turtles and six-pack ring)
- November: Schooners, oyster tongers, oysters in general
