Celebrate the Gulf holds children's coloring contest; deadline is March 3

BILOXI, Miss. – Organizers of the Celebrate the Gulf Marine Education Festival will hold the second annual children's coloring contest in conjunction with this year's event.

The competition is open to students in Kindergarten through eighth grade, and they are asked to submit an original design that depicts the conservation or scenic qualities of Mississippi's coastal resources.

The festival will be held Saturday, April 2, in conjunction with Art in the Pass. Both festivals will be held at War Memorial Park in Pass Christian.

Art submissions will be divided into four divisions: K-2nd grades, 3rd-5th grades and 6th-8th grades. The winning artist from each division will receive four tickets to a local family attraction.

Rules:

- Contest is open to all students enrolled in public, home or private school.
- No entry fee is required.
- Artist must be under 13 years of age.
- Entry size is 8 ½" X 11."
- Any medium may be used (e.g. pen and ink, colored pencil, acrylics, charcoal, pastels, collage, water color, etc.)
- Please include on the back of the artwork artist's name (spelled correctly and legibly), age, grade and school name (if applicable).
- Computer-generated art is NOT acceptable.
- Art work should depict Mississippi's coastal resources.
- Employees of the DMR and their immediate family members are not eligible for the contest.
- Entry deadline March 3, 2016, 5 p.m.
- Teachers should submit all student entries in one packet to the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (MDMR), c/o Jessica Rankin, 1141 Bayview Avenue, Biloxi, MS 39530. Include teacher's name, phone number and email address in packet.
- The decision of the judges is final.
