MDMR Announces 2013 Marine Information Calendar Art Contest for Coast Students

BILOXI, Miss. - In an effort to generate an interest in our coastal resources and to promote the awareness of their value, the Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (MDMR) is holding its 12th annual student art contest for third- through sixth-graders in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties. The winning entries will be featured in the MDMR's 2013 Marine Information Calendar and the original artwork will be on public display.

The theme of the contest is "Preserving and Enjoying Mississippi's Coastal Resources." Students may choose from among the following topics to be included in the calendar:

- January: Estuaries/Wetland Habitats (pitcher plant bogs, pine savannas, Great Blue Herons, Snowy Egrets, etc.)
- February: Marinas, boats docked in harbor (sailboats, sportfishing boats, etc.)
- March: Saltwater fishing/deep sea fishing, SHARKS!
- April: Boat and Water Safety (people boating or on Jet Skis wearing lifejackets)
- May: People fishing / floundering near Deer Island or enjoying the island recreationally
- June: Shrimp boats, Blessing of the Fleet, shrimp in general
- July: Reeling in a record-breaking saltwater fish (Red Snapper, Cobia, shark, etc.), offshore artificial reefs
- August: Blue Crabs, crabbing with drop nets
- September: Kids fishing off piers, wade fishing, or cast netting
- October: Mississippi Coastal Cleanup (a person cleaning up the beach or wildlife entangled in debris such as birds in fishing line, sea turtles and six-pack ring)
- November: Schooners, oyster tongers, oysters in general
- December: Mississippi Gulf Coast National Heritage Area (Coast landmarks such as Biloxi Lighthouse, Fort Massachusetts on Ship Island or the landing of D'Iberville)
